Preface

This Code constitutes a revision and recodification of the ordinances of the City of Rockland, Maine. It contains all the City's ordinances of general applicability and permanent nature passed on or before the date of the Code's adoption. The Code should be viewed as superseding all ordinances not included in it and inconsistent with its terms. For reference purposes, the Charter of the City of Rockland has also been included.

For the sake of clarity and consistency, some changes have been made in wording and organization of the original ordinances. Although not intended to be exhaustive, State law references and cross references to ordinance and Charter provisions appear at the end of each chapter or article. A general penalty has been included which shall apply to all offenses unless another penalty specifically appears in the text. Chapter, article, and section headings have also been added and a uniform numbering system applied to make the Code easier to use. Care should be taken to maintain this system when amending the Code.

The ordinances were codified, revised, and edited by Rebecca Warren Seel, Esquire, who wishes to express her appreciation to the City of Rockland for their patience and able assistance throughout this project.
